“For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.” – Romans 6:23

Friends,

We are in the throes of preparations for Christmas both in St. Paul’s Church and in our homes and families. Gifts, decorations, food and travel take up our time during Advent. This is our outward preparation for celebrating the coming of Christ in the Incarnation of Jesus at Christmas. But what of our inward preparations? Advent is a season of gifts for us if we keep it in some way each day. You might color in your Advent Calendar or you might have a wreath at home. You might come to our Advent book study on The Lion, The Witch And The Wardrobe and discuss the deeper meanings of Lewis’ writings on our shared faith. You might read a few verses in the beginning of Luke or Matthew’s Gospels aloud and hear the story again in your own voice. However you keep it, please do find a way to keep Advent yourself or with family and friends this season.

The preparation of our hearts comes with our focus, even in small bursts, on the gift of Jesus Christ in our own lives. As was said by the writer of Romans, sin leads to death and we feel that in our own lives and the world around us. The degradation of our environment, the desolation of war, the dehumanization of humanity through greed, fear and envy keep death before our eyes each day. But... We have the most precious gift in the world in Jesus Christ come into the world for all of us. Sin and death are not the final answer. They have no lasting power in the world with Jesus Christ whose birth, life, death and resurrection overcome sin and death and give us life everlasting. The presence of Christ in our hearts allows us to be tuned to Him and follow Him each day. The promise of eternal life with God gives us a heavenly perspective on our earthly cares. The power of the Holy Spirit given to us helps us walk with Christ each day and love as we are so richly loved by God. Tending these realities through the practice of keeping Advent helps us experience Christmas in a deeper way and gain insight into what God is calling forth in us and our walk with Christ each day. My prayer is that each of us be filled with the Holy Spirit and the presence of Christ this season.

I am very happy to have India Treadway on our staff as Nursery Attendant taking care of our precious little ones. Terry, her husband, is our new Sexton and they are a wonderful addition to our parish staff and family. By the time you read this we will be three weeks away from receiving our new church directories. I’m so pleased with all the pictures and have to say we’re a pretty good-looking bunch! Thanks so much to our volunteers and Secretary Alice who have worked tirelessly to produce this new directory. More info to come in the New Year about the ministry brochure we’ll be producing to give to our new comers and refer to ourselves. What a blessing to part of an active and faithful church family!

May your Advent be fruitful and your Christmas bursting with joy!

Faithfully,

Sarah+

*From your Sr.
Warden...*

I am amazed at how quickly this year seems to have flown by. We are almost to Thanksgiving and then Advent, my favorite time of the year. But we aren't there quite yet...so, I continue to try to be present and humble during the season of Thanksgiving. I am reminded of all that I have been blessed with and especially grateful for this parish family during this time of year.

In November, we celebrated Stewardship Sunday with great food and fellowship at the Harvest Dinner. It was a nice turnout but continue to miss seeing so many of our 8 o'clock folks at these gatherings.

Valerie Rowley, Clark, Janet and Pastor Sarah attended the Diocesan Convention in late October. Looking forward to hearing about the good work done as well as highlights from Bishop Gibbs last Diocesan Convention appearance as our Bishop. If you haven't had the opportunity yet, please take a moment and introduce yourself to Terry, India and Jeremiah who are on staff now. We are grateful for all the wonderful servants who have filled in to keep this building clean and functioning while we searched for the right people to help. Thanks, especially, to our dishwashers for their tireless efforts throughout this entire process.

Cardio drumming continues with one or two new faces a month. Ages range from 3 to 79. All are welcome.

I ask for your prayers for those who are grieving during this time of year...for loved ones who are sick or who have died. For those who are alone, for those who are struggling, and for those who won't be family during this time of year.

Respectfully submitted,
Michelle

AN ADVENT PRAYER

Lord Jesus, Master of both the light and the darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.

We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day.

We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.

We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kingdom.

We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence.

We are your people, walking in darkness, yet seeking the light.

To you we say, "Come Lord Jesus!"

– HENRI NOUWEN

The Women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church

ECW

The December Epistle is here already. With November effectively behind us now we are all starting to get ready for the Christmas Season and all that entails.

The physical world is rapidly heading toward the darkest time of the year while the spiritual world and the church is heading toward the brightest event on the liturgical calendar – the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Advent brings hope as we prepare for the joy and love that His birth heralds. In that same vein the women of ECW attended a Taizé service at our November meeting lead by Christy Randall. It was an opportunity for us to stop and quiet our minds and hearts in preparation for the approaching season of Advent. The chapel was candle lit and we were led in chant-like hymns with piano and violin accompaniment interspersed with scripture readings and periods of meditative silence. It was a deeply spiritual experience and was so enjoyed by the women who attended that they hoped it would be repeated next year. Thanks to Christy for leading and Janet Hughes for her piano skills.

Lots of business to get to so here goes. Since the Epistle may go early, I'd like to remind you that the St. Nicholas party is Sunday, December 1. All children are welcome to attend. The more the merrier so invite your friends and neighbors to come and have fun and hear the timeless story of St. Nicholas. The ECW Christmas luncheon is set for December 14 at the country club of Jackson. Cost this year is $21. There is a sign-up sheet in the glass narthex and all women are encouraged to attend this most enjoyable event. Please remember to get your hats, scarfs, mittens and/or socks prior to the event so that they may be brought to Priceless Gifts in time for distribution to needy children. There is a box in the glass narthex for drop off.

The nuts are in! If you have not picked yours up already, they are available after both services in Holy Spirit Hall. Some extras are also available to buy if you were unable to get your order in ahead of time. Please check your gift lists and see how many people would appreciate some of these high-quality nuts as presents. This is our major fundraiser and allows us to do both in-reach and out-reach during our business year. Your continued support in these endeavors is vital and most appreciated. Sales are Sundays after services or see one of the ECW board on "off" times to secure your choice of nuts. We also have Liturgical calendars left to sell. Cost is a mere $4, and you have a year of the colors, feast days and Sunday readings at your fingertips – see Sandra Kilian or any ECW board person. There are still some dues pending but it is never too late to turn them in. Please see Cheryl Gumper to update your dues status.

Calling all mothers of young children!! Our January meeting will feature Dot Tetreault, LMSW who will educate us all on cyber bullying and the effects of social media on children. This is a wonderful opportunity for young parents to learn the pitfalls and protect their children from falling into them.

On behalf of ECW I wish you all a happy, holy and safe Christmas season.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Rowley, Vice President ECW.

Friends! This month we will receive our new photo directories and if you got your picture taken you will get one! The directory is beautiful and has our photos and addresses only. A lovely brochure will be produced in the New Year with all our ministries pictured along with contact info on ministry leaders. We are ordering lots of the brochures so all our members as well as newcomers can take one home to refer to. Thanks to Janet Wesch, Margaret O'Connor, Melissa Velandra, Dennis Marsh and Alice Mulhearn for their dedicated work on putting this directory together! This team has produced a wonderful directory with beautiful photos. You'll get yours by Christmas!

Happy Advent! As we look forward to all the preparations of the season, please remember those who are struggling this year. One neighborhood organization that has had serious challenges is the Jackson Community Food Pantry at 701 Greenwood Ave. A freezer malfunction allowed frozen chicken to defrost for a full week, leading to buckets of liquified chicken to soak into the carpet, sub floor and woodwork. They are only open one day a week so by the time it was discovered, it was an enormous putrid mess. They have been closed for 5 months while they navigated the insurance red tape, replaced equipment and all the flooring, woodwork, etc.

They are open again and serve 100 families or 400 people in our neighborhood. They are in desperate need of the following items: BABY FORMULA, protein, fresh produce, bread, cereal, rice, beans, canned goods, and feminine hygiene products. They also need cash.

We have put the items needed on the Angel Tree in the glass narthex. Please take an angel (or two) purchase your items and bring them to the church before Wednesday, December 18. We will be delivering our donations on that day. Obviously, if you are purchasing frozen turkeys, meat or fresh produce other than potatoes, deliver them Monday or Tuesday, December 16-17 of that week.

We also will be receiving names of single women from the AWARE shelter who are often forgotten at this time of year. They have not given us names yet, but they will be added to the tree as soon as we get them.

Thank you from all of us on the Mission and Outreach committee! You make our job so easy because of the love and generosity you ALWAYS show toward the needy in our community. It is a privilege and honor to represent you.

We pray you all the blessings this Holy season has to offer for you and those you love.

New Coffee Hour Plans

Pastor Sarah has already sent out some information but this article is a reminder of the change in how hosting coffee hour will now work. With the hiring of a Kitchen Manager and the formation of the Kitchen Cabinet, plans are now in place to make it easier for someone interested in hosting a Sunday Coffee hour.

The new plan for coffee hour is for the host/hostess to bring in a sweet item for about 40-50 people. Jeremiah, our new Kitchen Manager, will prepare a tray which will consist of fruit or veggies, cheese & crackers as well as a gluten free item for our dietary restricted parishioners. The host / hostess will be responsible for making the coffee, setting out the juice and water, and trays as well as the sweet item they bring. Sweet items can be cookies, muffins, cake, brownies, pastries or whatever you choose. This new method should reduce some of the stress previously felt by people who didn't feel comfortable participating.

In addition, we have heard comments from people who would like to donate money but don't feel comfortable serving as a hostess. We appreciate your willingness to be part of this service for our parish family. If you want to donate, please write a check and put Hospitality on the memo line or just drop it into the plate at the end of the table where food is placed. Your donation is truly appreciated and will be put toward the trays that will be prepared weekly.

We are also seeking individuals who would serve as Monthly Team Leaders to help with the organization of the coffee hosting schedule and work with the other team leaders on projects as needed to provide our parish family and guests with wonderful fellowship opportunities.

The Kitchen Cabinet will be meeting monthly on the first Tuesday of each month, so please feel free to share your concerns or questions in time for the group to address them.

If you have any questions, please contact Rhonda Rudolph at rlrudolph61@gmail.com or (517) 474-4368.

Harvest Dinner Thank You!

Thank you to everyone for making our 2019 Harvest Dinner such a wonderful success. With almost 90 people attending, it was a true celebration of thanks and fellowship in our parish. We were blessed with wonderful food brought in by our church members as well as enjoying turkey, creamy seasoned potatoes, dressing, gravy and cranberry sauce prepared by our Kitchen Manager, Jeremiah. It was all delicious and I think everyone walked away with a full stomach. We are so blessed in our church.

In addition, I would like to thank Romelle and Wayne Frey, Jerry Phiffille, Barney Rudolph, Madeline Nadolski, and JoAnn Smith. A big thank you also goes out to everyone who helped clean up after the event on Sunday especially Deb Batchelder, Jo & John Alipit, Loren Swanson and the set up crew. All of your assistance was extremely appreciated.

Sincerely Rhonda Rudolph
